The Bunnings Bashers and Victorian Blind Cricket Association did battle last Sunday.

Tight tussle

CRICKET: The Victorian Blind Cricket Association took on team members from the Bunnings Warehouse Hawthorn in a Twenty20 friendly last Sunday. Despite the poor weather, a good day was had by all with the Bunnings Bashers victorious by 17 runs.

The quality of the opposition and the pace of its bowling took the Bashers, who play as fully-sighted players, by surprise. The score at the end of the match highlights the amazing talent of the Victorian Blind Cricket Association team.

Nick Trainor, a team member from Bunnings Warehouse Hawthorn, won the man of the match award.
